The Weekend Plan

JULY 09, 2010

It's Friday and another fabulous Hamptons weekend has begun! Our issue with Beth Ostrosky Stern hits the stands today, and I have a lot to accomplish before heading off to the dinner we're hosting for her this evening at Savanna's.

First I have a meeting with my friend Alison Brettschneider at her fabulous new shop 25Park in Bridgehampton, where we'll pick out clothes for upcoming Hamptons shoots. She carries some of my favorites: Malene Birger, Sachin and Babi, Megan Park, Haute Hippie, Gryphon and Robin Brouillette, as well as Stella Cove and Rikshaw Design for kids. They're all my aesthetic, and her buy is so good you don't see the same things you see everywhere else. Then it's across the street to Allison and Louis Julius' shop Maison 24 for our Buy Design and Interior Dialogue pages. They carry pieces I love, like the Ghost chair by Cedri/Martini, a three-tiered chandelier from Murano and vibrant teal sofas from their own collection. (They also have an amazing globe that you'll see here soon as one of my daily picks.)

After that I'm off to Southampton for some Bobbi Brown sunscreen body spray in SPF 15 (it smells delicious!) from Saks Fifth Avenue and a quick blow-dry at Bianka Lefferts' 27 Hampton Salon.
