

PageDaily

June 2010

Things to Do in the Hamptons: Hamptons Hot List, Part 1

By Samantha Yanks, Editor-in-Chief
Gotham and Hamptons Magazines

We all have our favorite spots in the Hamptons, but I always love the beginning of summer. The new season brings new places to work out, dine, and shop. And, there's nothing like being the first to know, and try, what's soon to be hot in our favorite beach community. Truly, there is so much happening on the East End, you won't want to leave.

Places to Visit in the Hamptons for Fashion:

Magaschoni

2 Newtown Lane, East Hampton
One year after opening in Southampton, Monica Forman has opened Magaschoni's second Hamptons store, complete with its signature colorful cashmeres and exclusive Carlos Falchi python handbags.

Michael Kors

30 Main Street, Southampton
After making his mark in East Hampton, the soon-to-be-awarded CFDA recipient has opened another store in Southampton, full of Hamptons-specific designs.

25Park

2415 Main Street, Bridgehampton
Alison Bretschneider, friend and fabulous eye, opened her second 25Park store—the first is in Manhattan—and luckily for us it's in Bridge. With its chic design and even chicer clothing, it will be your go-to shop. For me, it's a no-brainer—I shop for me and my daughter in one place.

Edit Summer

28 Jobs Lane, Southampton
For beach-ready gear from Derek Lam to K. Jacques, look no further than designer-clad Edit's Southampton store. This new location means more perfectly well-edited items for your summer wardrobe.

The Store at the Surf Lodge

183 Edgemere Street, Montauk
Stop by fab new dad Rogan Gregory's store at the Surf Lodge for exclusively designed pieces from Loomstate and Surf Bazaar, as well as beach-inspired collections from Tracey Feith and Suno.

Best Places for For Hamptons Beauty:

Naturopathica

74 Montauk High, East Hampton
The epitome of relaxation, Naturopathica continues to raise the bar in natural skincare solutions by renovating its East Hampton location to reflect the brand's apothecary roots. Try their line of beauty products or choose from a luxurious list of spa services.

27 Hampton Salon

631.377.3107
27 Hamptons Road, Southampton
This full-service hair salon next to Saks Fifth Avenue offers hair, nail, waxing, and facial treatments. Owner Bianka is simply the sweetest, the services are amazing, and the salon is the exclusive carrier of the coveted Oribe products that I love.

Sjal Skincare at The Baker House

181 Main Street, East Hampton
Restore exhausted skin with the latest facial from Sjal Skincare at the Baker House. The hotel is heavenly, and the facials are to die for—I want to go every weekend, and I promise you will too.

Mizu

505 Park Avenue, New York
This New York salon is offering Breakfast Blow-dries—7:30 a.m. appointments with complimentary coffee, cappuccino, tea, and light breakfast—on Mondays this summer for a post-Hamptons blowout before work. Get $15 off when you present your Hamptons train or Jitney ticket.