SUITE 1521'S LIZZIE TISCH AND KIM KASSEL ARE MAKING SHOPPING FUN AGAIN.

Over their many years in New York, Lizzie Tisch (BELOW, LEFT) and Kim Kassel have built up an enviable knowledge of the fashion-world landscape. Now they're putting that understanding to use with Suite 1521, a recently launched venture that gives paying members access to private designer events featuring just-off-the-runway collections. Designers are also often on hand to customize pieces for a truly one-of-a-kind shopping experience. The club has caught on with the area's discerning shoppers as well as with an impressive roster of designers such as Bibhu Mohapatra, Rodarte, and Prabal Gurung. Herewith, the cofounders, friends, and Bridgehampton neighbors share what's taking up real estate in their beach bags. H

Fresh Hair

27 Hampton Salon goes 100 percent chemical-free with their products.

When 27 Hampton Salon owner Bianka Lefferts started paying attention to the ingredients in the products she carried, it inspired in her a new philosophy. "Our clients work out, eat organic food, and take care of themselves," says Lefferts, "so why put all these chemicals in your hair if you don't have to?"

Lefferts's research revealed a whole slate of companies devoted to creating formulas free of silicon, parabens, and sulfates, including the French family-owned Leonor Greyl, the new venture R+Co, and Oribe. All of those brands are now on her shelves, and Lefferts could not be happier with the results. "I'm on a mission now to save the world with beauty," she says.
