MTV house parties, Real Housewives, club brawls—the Hamptons sometimes have a sketchy reputation. But I've been going there for decades and never once partied with Paris Hilton (and she's probably as happy about that as I am). What most people may not know about the Hamptons is they've become a beauty mecca, with some of the best colorists and waxers in the country. Don't just take my word for it—I polled my friends, too. Here are our favorites:

Southampton:

27 Hampton Salon. Bianka Lefferts, who trained at Bumble and Bumble, now owns this cheerful, bustling salon. She does a great sexy blowout and has a team of fantastic stylists. She also draws visiting pros from top salons in N.Y.C. The salon's colorist, Katie, is so good that two of my pickiest friends go only to her. Aleyda does a lovely, long-lasting mani/pedi. 27 Hampton Road; 631-377-3107; 27hamptonsalon.com.
